Arnie Roman

has been writing professionally since 1982. The list of artists that have recorded his songs is long and varied, from Billy Porter and Al Green to Celine Dion and Cher. His songs have been on albums that have sold more than eighty million records and CDs world-wide, and he has had a slew of top ten singles on Billboard's Pop, Country, and Dance charts, as well as several top ten hits overseas.

"Within us each lies a heroic, available way forward to something lighter, truer, better"

Andrea Andresakis (Director)

has over 100 productions to her name at Lincoln Center, on Broadway, Off Broadway, nationally and internationally. She directed the East Coast premiere of the Marvelous Wonderettes; a national tour of The Little Prince; an award-winning revival of Spring Awakening; and Spandex, a musical for all sizes, Off Broadway; The Beatles in India in New Delhi; and Pure Imagination in Shanghai, China.
